It's been a challenging year, to put it mildly, and travel has been limited or closed. But places are opening up again.

This month, we're highlighting our suggested swanky vacation spot, the remarkable Giraffe Manor in Nairobi, Africa. Plus you can take additional side trips to visit with gorillas or elephants while there. Which would you do? Facilities have safe social distancing in place. Does it get your travel bug buzzing?

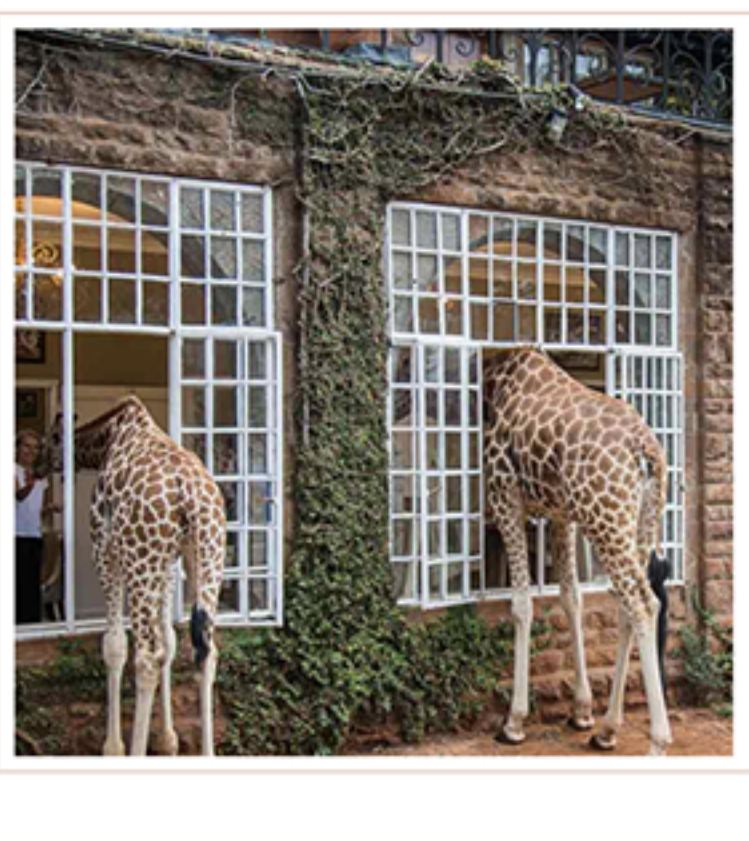

Surprise Breakfast Guest

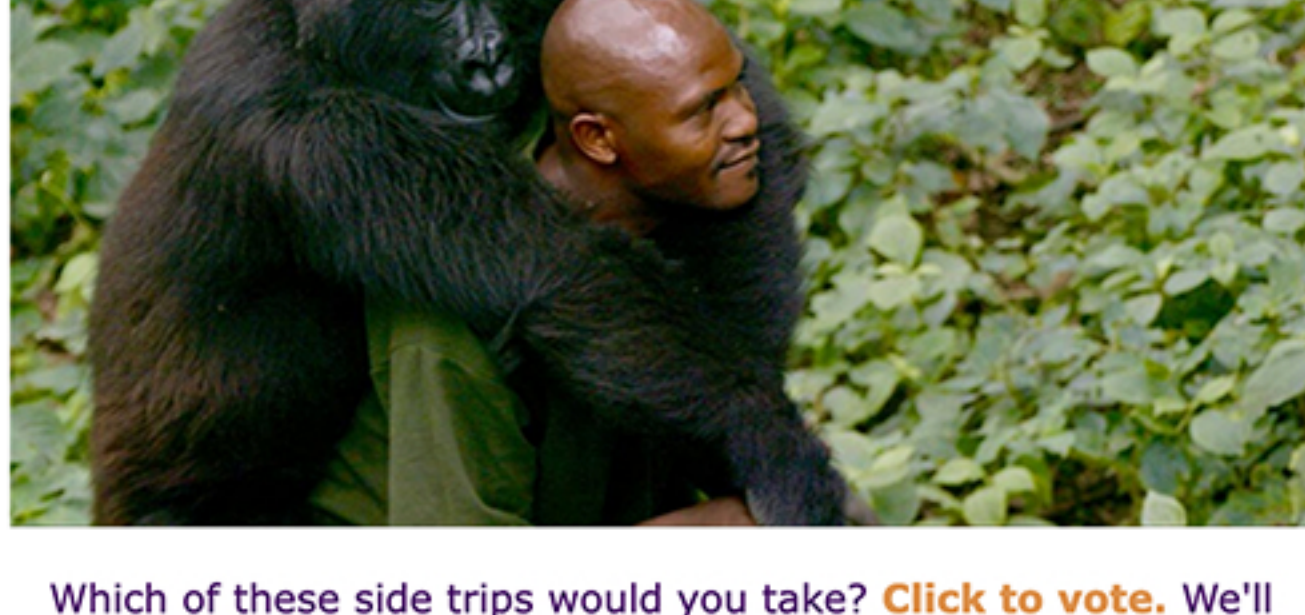

Giraffe Manor is set in 12 acres of private land within 140 acres of indigenous forest in Nairobi. The historic manor house dates back to the 1930s. With its stately façade, elegant interior, verdant green gardens, sunny terraces and courtyards, guests often say that it's like walking into the film Out of Africa.

Nosey Neighbors

The resident herd of Rothschild's giraffes may visit morning and evening, poking their long necks into windows in the hope of a treat, before retreating to their forest sanctuary.

Visit with Gorillas

In Africa's oldest and most biologically diverse protected area, known as Virunga National Park, this relatively undiscovered gem is home to about a quarter of the world's critically endangered mountain gorillas.

Trek through this vast and beautiful forest to meet the gorillas. Then climb one of the many volcanoes, sleeping in a sunlit hut for the night.

Safari with Elephants

On this safari, you'll have the opportunity to go fly camp, camel ride and spot lots of elephant and species unique to the area such as Grevy Zebra, Oryx, Somali Ostrich and gerenuk.

Exclusive access allows guests to have an incredibly Kenya safari experience.
